Important Historical additional note:

1934 Turin (ITA)

The following Irish athletes were entered by the then National Federation the NACAI to compete in the inaugural European Championships which took place in the Benito Mussolini Municipal Stadium, Turin:

110mH:	Theodore D "Theo" Phelan (Milocarlan)
110mH:	Richard H. Wallace (Dublin University)
Long Jump:	Patrick "Paddy" Anglim (Clonmel Garda)
Triple Jump:	Eamonn Fitzgerald (UCD)
Hammer Throw:	Dr Patrick "Pat" O'Callaghan (Duhallow)
Hammer Throw:	M. Curtin (Fr. O'Leary, Cork)

Following the decision at the 12th IAAF Congress held in Stockholm, Sweden, on 28/29 August, 1934, that National Federations affiliated to the IAAF could only have jurisdiction over athletics within the sovereign political boundaries of the nation they represented, i.e., the NACAI was required to operate within the 26 counties of the Irish Free State, and a ruling by the Chair of the Congress that Irish athletes had to compete representing the Irish Free State and not all Ireland, the NACAI delegation at the Congress formally withdrew the team from the European Championships.
